PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a summons.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance1 Mandatory Condition # 2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.Supporting Evidence: Rosa Sandoval-Guizar is considered in violation of her period of probation in the Eastern District of Washington by committing the offenses of malicious mischief in the second degree, assault in the fourth degree, and hit and run unattended with damage, on or prior to July 23, 2011.

On July 23, 2011, the defendant drove to the residence of the victim and confronted her about a mutual male friend. An argument ensued and the defendant punched the victim. The fight continued in the breeze way until the victim was able to get away and returned to her residence. The defendant returned to her vehicle and used it to ram the victim's vehicle, pushing it into the wall of an adjoining apartment building. The defendant then drove away from the scene.

Officers were able to locate the defendant's vehicle at her residence and contact was attempted. Officers could hear the defendant inside of her apartment and requested she come out. The defendant did not respond. A search warrant was obtained and the officers forced entry into the apartment. The defendant was in an upper loft area of the apartment and refused to come down. Officers had to climb the spiral staircase and place the defendant under arrest. When asked why she did not open the door she stated, "Because you scared me."

On October 19, 2011, the defendant plead guilty to the charges and was sentenced under case number 11-1-00781-6 to 30 days work release at the Benton County Jail. The defendant is currently serving her sentence and will complete it on November 21, 2011.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a summons requiring the defendant to appear to answer to the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
